

CONFIDENTIAL

21 June 1972

25X1

MEMORANDUM FOR:

THROUGH :

SUBJECT :

REFERENCES :

1. During the period 5-9 June 1972, Special Agent, John Cox, weapons instructor from the FBI Academy in Quantico, Virginia, visited the

25X1

2. During his visit, Mr. Cox was afforded an opportunity to handle and use a considerable assortment of U.S. and foreign weapons as listed hereafter:

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

in firing handguns. On several occasions, he achieved the maximum score, possible (300), in firing the Agency's Handgun Qualification Test with both the automatic pistol and revolver.

25X1 3. With reference to discussions concerning our proposed plans for [redacted] Mr. Cox passed on the following observations and recommendations:

a. The overall changes we propose to institute were sound and would serve to improve the quality and effectiveness [redacted] training programs.

25X1

25X1

4. At the time of his departure, Mr. Cox sincerely expressed his appreciation for the hospitality accorded to him by the [redacted] and stated that the weapons orientation program proved to be enlightening and profitable. The results of his visit served to further cement our relationships with the FBI Academy at Quantico and enabled us to solicit viewpoints to further solidify our plans for improvement of our [redacted] Concurrently

25X1

25X1

25X1

Attachments:

References A and B

Distribution:

Orig. & 1 - Addressee

1 -
1 -
1 -
1 -
1 -

[redacted]

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

Approved For Release 2005/08/24 : CIA-RDP78-06081A000100130005-8

Approved For Release 2005/08/24 : CIA-RDP78-06081A000100130005-8

MISSING PAGE

ORIGINAL DOCUMENT MISSING PAGE(S):

Attachments Ref A and B